Lynn Edwards, Exe. Director of the Anson Co Chamber, gave a "huge thanks" to the hunters, who "come back each year to support this event. We had several new hunters this year and I give them a heartfelt welcome to our tournament." Edwards thanked the tournament's sponsors – J.W.F. Electric membership Corp., Progress Energy, Pee Dee Electric and Windstream, Gold sponsors; Perdue Farms and The Sportsman's Closet, Silver sponsors; Backwater Taxidermy, Lynn Clodfelter Atty at Law, Dale McRae Farm, Locust Lumber, Lynn Thomas Grading, RBC Bank, The Old Hargett Store and McCollum Trucking & Grading/McCollum & Assoc. "This hunt tournament is successful because of our great volunteers," Edwards said, singling out Marty Cato, Courtney McCollum, Jamie Webb, Abbey Henry, Jessica Webb, Anthony Cato, Dusty Moser, Stacie Cato (and her parents), and chef Todd Moore (and his mother, Peggy Ingram). She singled out Coca-Cola, Pepsi, RA Jefferies and Refreshment Services for their contributions to the banquet; and the AVFD "for allowing us to host our event at the fire department each year."

Dr. Don Altieri, volunteer director said, "We were pleased with the turn out for the tour; 45 citizens took in the annual Christmastime Tour of Homes. Three local homes, the Arts Council and the Olde Mill Gallery were on the tour. Our great difficulty this year was lining up homes." Carly Little, board chairwoman said, "The tour was a great kick off to the holiday season, each home was beautifully decorated and had a very warm inviting feel. The UWI board members look forward to this event every year."
